

---

RC A CP

Generate a sense of enthusiasm among students.
Motivate by constructive feedback and praise.
Responsive to the differing learning styles of students.
Provide opportunities for student expression in a variety of ways.
Relate curriculum to situations within the experience of students.
Develop learning activities that are challenging and interesting to students.
Stimulate students to participate constructively in class discussions and activities.

Maintain an effective system for recording student results.
Adhere to record keeping procedures.
Monitor the development of student outcomes over time according to appropriate performance indicators in consultation with the Subject Coordinator.
Monitor the results of individual students to ensure that their individual needs are met through modification of strategies

Participate in the appraisal program of the College.
Participate in the development of school policies and procedures.